

THE ROBERT W. MONG, JR.
JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIP PARAMETERS

BACKGROUND

The Robert W. Mong Jr. Journalism Scholarship Fund was created in 2010 to award scholarships to deserving high school seniors pursuing a career in journalism. This is a one-time, non-renewable award/scholarship. Funds awarded must be used to cover college tuition or fees.

AMOUNT

One to three scholarships ranging between $1,000 - $3,000 shall be awarded annually to students who meet the eligibility requirements outlined below. If the Scholarship Review Committee determines that no applicants meet the eligibility requirements or qualifications to receive the award, then the committee may elect to not award any scholarships for that given year.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To qualify, a high school student must meet the following criteria:

- Be a U.S. citizen or legal, permanent resident with a permanent resident card
- Be a graduating senior of a North Texas high school and live within Collin, Dallas, Denton, Ellis, Kaufman, Rockwall or Tarrant County.
- Have a minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale
- Show a demonstrated aptitude for print journalism
- Plan to pursue a four-year degree in journalism
- Exhibit community service leadership
